AD CLUB STUNT TO BE APRIL 11
Nominations for Queen of Annual Carnival Now in Order.

The Ad Club Carnival will be held on Friday night, April 14. The girls of Stephens and Christian colleges and the University will be eligible for Ad Club Queen. Nominations must be made before April 4.

Plans for the carnival are not yet definite, but the general idea will be the same as last year. Stephens and Christian Colleges and the high school will be asked to put on stunts.

The Ad Club last night planned the sending out of news stories to the papers throughout the state. It was decided to offer a prize of $5 for the best story entitled "A Year at M. U." This is to be written as a general story, but in such a way that local items can be incorporated in it.

Besides this arrangement for one big story, a scheme was adopted for getting monthly stories for students' home papers. Each member of the Ad Club is to gather the items from several county clubs and turn them into the office of the University publisher. They are to be assembled there and sent out to the papers in place of the general story that has formerly been sent. By this plan each paper will receive a different story and one containing items of local interest.

National Prohibition of First Importance, Says Former Secretary.

"Enthusiasm has been suggested as the keynote for our work in April, but we would do well to take it as our keynote for all time. Nobody wants to belong to anything dead, and we cannot lie down on the job."

Mrs. Schachner was formerly national secretary of the Young People's Branch of the W. C. T. U. She organized the Columbia Y. P. B. and expressed herself as being well pleased with the work.

Stephens College lost by one point to Howard-Payne in a basketball game played at Fayette last night. The score was 16 to 15. The game was exciting from start to finish. During the first few minutes the Howard-Payne team rushed the ball down the field and made seven points while Stephens was making one point. The Stephens team then braced up and played better basketball during the last part of the game. At the end of the first half, the score was 9 to 7 in favor of Howard-Payne.

This was the second game with Howard-Payne this year. Stephens won the first, 21 to 20.

AT 73, IS FINGER BILLIARDIST

"Professor" Lewis Can Do Fancy Stunts With the Ivorys.

"Prof." Henry Lewis, who is here today, has a novel, but effective, way of playing billiards. "Prof." Lewis disdains to use a cue, depending upon his fingers, or his nose, for the necessary "English." Apparently there is no shot on the table which he cannot make with a snap of his fingers. He is 73 years old. At one time he was a baseball mathematician, and compiled baseball averages for the Dayton and Toledo, Ohio, papers.

"Raise the finger and pull down the thumb," says "Professor" Lewis. "That's the way it's done."

It sounds easy enough, but—try it yourself. As a matter of fact he has spent almost forty years learning to control the billiard balls in this manner.

One of his most spectacular shots is a draw from a ball held above the table by a spectator to the other ball on the table. In another shot he curved the cue ball in a circle around a hat placed on the table. "Professor" Lewis has played four men at a time, using only his fingers, and making 100 points to the total of 50 of the other players. He also plays one man, using his nose as a cue, and undertaking to make fifty points to his opponent's 25.

BREAKS WHEEL MAKING TURN

Walter Sampson in Auto Accident at Ninth and Conley.

Walter Sampson, 1211 East Broadway, tried the old experiment of attempting to take the turn west at the corner of Conley avenue and Ninth street at a high rate of speed this afternoon, with the usual results, a broken wheel. His car was prevented from attacking the houses on the south side of Conley avenue only by the timely interference of the curb. The damage to Mr. Sampson's new light Buick six will amount to about $15.

To Try Out "Follies" Chorus.

The first tryout for "The Follies of 1916," which will be given at the Farmers' Fair, will be held at 7 o'clock Wednesday night in Rothwell Gymnasium. The chorus men and "girls" will be chosen with reference to voice, figure, ability to dance and general appearance. This year rehearsals will begin much earlier than usual, as those in charge believe that the public expects more of "The Follies" than of any other feature on "The Zone" at the Farmers' Fair.
